

Hilary Grant, Interim Chief Administrative Officer, Announces Resignation

Jan. 22, 2025

Hilary Grant, Interim Chief Administrative Officer (CAO), has announced that she will step down from her interim role, effective February 25, 2025.

"After careful reflection, I have decided to step away from my role as Interim CAO in support of Council prioritizing the recruitment of a permanent CAO and to ensure a smooth leadership transition for the Town. This decision is entirely my own and reflects my continued commitment to the Town's success and stability. I am proud of the progress we have made during my tenure, and I look forward to advancing key initiatives as Director of Community Development."

"I am deeply grateful to Mayor Myra, Council, and the Town's management team and staff for their trust and support in allowing me to serve during this transitional period. Stepping into the Interim CAO role during a pivotal time has been a meaningful opportunity to contribute to Lunenburg. I also wish to acknowledge the collaborative efforts of those who contributed to the successes achieved during my time as Interim CAO, helping to position the Town for its bright future."

"I extend my gratitude to Hilary Grant for stepping into the Interim CAO role during a pivotal time of Council transition thus ensuring stability and continuity in the Town's administration. Her leadership guiding the organization through key transitions, managing critical files, and providing strategic counsel to the Town's new Council reflects her dedicated service. I am confident in her continued work as Director of Community Development and look forward to working with her in that role to continue Lunenburg's success."
