Addendum #2

1. Could the Town provide the draft Municipal Planning Strategy and Land Use By-law amendments that have already been prepared by staff?
No.
2. Beyond the minimum consultation activities identified in the RFP, is the Town open to proponents recommending additional engagement methods where appropriate?
Yes.
3. Will the Town provide the stakeholder contact list and facilitate introductions, or is stakeholder identification expected to form part of the consultant's scope?
List will be provided.
4. Are there specific policy areas (e.g., short-term rentals, discretionary planning tools, parking, heritage protection) that Council considers the highest priority?
Review May 5, 2026 recording of Committee of the Whole.
5. Is the consultant expected to prepare final legislative wording suitable for adoption, or primarily provide planning advice and revisions to the existing drafts?
Question is unclear. Successful proponent will provide advice and prepare documents for submission to the Province.
6. Following submission of the amendments to the Department of Municipal Affairs, does the Town anticipate requiring any post-submission support, or is the assignment expected to conclude upon submission?
Assignment concludes upon submission
